Topic: HOW TO AVOID THE JQC AND OTHER HELPFUL HINTS TO STAY OUT OF JUDICIAL TROUBLE!

Presenter: Attorney Warren Lindsey

Please join us for a captivating one-hour presentation on what judges can do to avoid a finding of probable cause from the Judicial Qualifications Commission. In addition, we will learn how the JQC operates and discover helpful hints on what judges can do to avoid a grievance. Plus, what steps you should take in the unfortunate event that you are the subject of a JQC inquiry.

Warren Lindsey has extensive experience with representing judges statewide who have been the subject of JQC investigations. He understands how the JQC works, knows hot button issues judges must understand, and has successfully represented numerous judges who have been referred to the JQC. Mr. Lindsey is a Florida Bar

Board Certified Criminal Trial Lawyer and is AV rated for ability and ethics by Martindale-Hubbell. He is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit, the Middle District of Florida and all Florida State Courts. He is a well-known leader in the statewide legal community as a past member of the Florida Bar Board of Governors, past chair of the Florida Bar Legislation Committee and past co-chair of the Florida Bar Disciplinary Review Committee. Mr. Lindsey is also a past President of the Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division and member of the Florida Bar Criminal Rules Committee. He is likewise a past president of the Orange County Bar Association and served on many OCBA leadership positions, to include Chairman of the Criminal Law Committee, Judicial Relations Committee, the Fee Arbitration Committee, and is a past president of Central Florida Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. In 2016, Mr. Lindsey was recognized by Orlando Magazine as “Lawyer of the Year” in the area of Criminal Defense, Non-White Collar Crime.
